Memorial Day weekend and the month of June are always exciting as we get closer to celebrating America's Independence Day. We are thrilled to share the story of American Independence and the struggle for freedom and equal rights for all. Independence Hall is the place where the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution were debated, adopted and signed. Join us in this historic place, a place recognized around the world as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Take a tour with a National Park Service Ranger. Explore Independence Square; the Liberty Bell Center, home to the world-famous Liberty Bell; the Second Bank of the United States – People of Independence Portrait Gallery; or the Benjamin Franklin Museum in Franklin Court.

During Memorial Day weekend, we will be remembering those who made the ultimate sacrifice in service to our country. We will have several special programs including ranger-led From Remembrance to Recreation, which explores the history of Memorial Day itself.

The program will take place on May 26 & 27 at the Second Bank of the United States (420 Chestnut Street).

On June 14, celebrate Flag Day and the United States Army's birthday with pomp and parade! Join the flag raising at the National Constitution Center at 10:30 am, followed by a patriotic parade of troops past and present. The U.S. Army will have military vehicles on display throughout the day. At noon, sky divers from Fastrax Parachute Team will land on Independence Mall.

Please stop by the Independence Visitor Center to learn more about our events, tours and special programs. National Park Service Rangers can assist you in planning your visit to the park.

I encourage you to participate in the many unique family friendly programs and activities and learn about United States history in America's most historic square mile!

Tippler's Tour

Welcome to Historic Philadelphia!

You are in the heart of America's Most Historic Square Mile and there's so much to see, do and experience while you are here. You'll meet History Makers in person, hear from storytellers at Once Upon A Nation Storytelling Benches, drill with the Continental Army and more.

Whether you have a couple of hours or a couple of days to spend, check out the helpful information in the Gazette to help you make the most of your visit. Begin your day at the Independence Visitor Center, where you can pick up your free, timed Independence Hall tickets. Seeing the room where our Declaration of Independence was debated and adopted is a must!

You won't want to miss the National Constitution Center's exhibit on Alexander Hamilton. See page 2 for the Center's special events planned for Memorial Day weekend and Flag Day, plus FREE admission on Wawa Hoagie Day (June 28). Check out the neighborhood's newest attraction, Museum of the American Revolution, which tells the story of America's fight for independence in an interactive and dynamic way.

This month also features the 11th annual Flag Fest, a weeklong celebration of our Stars & Stripes at Betsy Ross House that kicks off Sunday, June 10 and continues all week with daytime and NEW evening events, and culminates with a full day of FREE family fun on Stars & Stripes Saturday, June 16. On Flag Day, June 14 the National Constitution Center celebrates Flag Day and the U.S. Army's birthday with special events and the Betsy Ross House hosts the City of Philadelphia's official Flag Day commemoration and offers free admission. See page 2 for details.

Inside, find everything else you need to know to have a great trip. There's information about Once Upon A Nation's amazing tours that immerse you in history (and sneak you into Independence Hall at night!) and free programs that bring history to life for the whole family (pages 4 & 5), a map (on the back) and lots more valuable information to help make your visit a great one.

Some of the most unique and rewarding experiences you'll have in Historic Philadelphia will be meeting Once Upon A Nation's History Makers – people from the past who will share their uniquely interesting stories – and at the Once Upon A Nation Storytelling Benches, where you'll hear little known tales from our nation's early years. See the map for locations, and plan to visit some or all of the 13 benches during the day to hear stories that history class missed.

Hamilton! A Favorite Founder takes Philadelphia

Though he's famous as a New Yorker and is currently the toast of Broadway, Alexander Hamilton spent years in Philadelphia helping to create a new nation. This summer, sites all around Historic Philadelphia are celebrating this favorite Founding Father.

Walk in his footsteps and visit places he knew well—Independence Hall, Carpenters' Hall, and the First Bank of the United States. Gain in-depth knowledge at an exciting new exhibit, Hamilton: The Constitutional Clashes that Shaped a Nation, at the National Constitution Center.

Alexander Hamilton

Celebrate the "Ten Dollar Founding Father" throughout the entire Center with interactive shows, trivia games, story spots, and more. Plus, Once Upon A Nation Storytellers will share how Hamilton persuaded Washington to be America's first President and then later, helps him establish the world's first peaceful transition of power. Get the inside scoop on Hamilton's famous feud with Aaron Burr at the Once Upon A Nation storytelling bench at the Museum of the American Revolution and at the Second Bank of the United States, take a Hamilton-centric gallery tour (see p. 3).

The map on page 8 and its key will guide you on this unforgettable journey!

Once Upon A Nation programming brings history to life this summer

Beginning Memorial Day weekend, experience history in a whole new way with unique, FREE programming presented in Historic Philadelphia and at Valley Forge National Historical Park by Once Upon A Nation.

Flag-Raising at the Betsy Ross House: Start your day in the charming Betsy Ross House courtyard with Betsy Ross and one of her Colonial friends, raising the 13-star flag with pomp and circumstance.

Storytelling Benches: Visit 13 spots in Historic Philadelphia (see map on back), plus three more in Valley Forge, where specially-trained storytellers entertain with short stories sharing the secrets of Philadelphia's and America's history in the places they happened. Children can pick up a Story Flag at any bench, then collect a star from every bench. Flags with all the stars can be redeemed for a History Hero Certificate and a free carousel ride on the Parx Liberty Carousel in Franklin Square.

Meet History Makers: Meet people from the past and learn about their lives and times in Colonial Philadelphia.

Military Muster: The Continental Army is looking for a few good kids! Drill in the art of marching and musket etiquette.

Declaration Reading: Greet the History Makers, favorite characters from the Once Upon A Nation stories come to life, and hear moving readings from the Declaration of Independence.

Valley Forge Secrets & Spies: George Washington needs help! There's rumor of a plot to have him kidnapped at Valley Forge. Learn 18th-century spy techniques as young guests work with operatives to foil the plot.

See the programming schedule on page 4 for times and locations. Visit historicphiladelphia.org for more details.

SERVICES

Language Services Park maps are available in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Polish, Russian and Spanish. The Visitor Center concierge staff is fluent in nine languages including Spanish, French, German and Italian. Information about the Liberty Bell and other park sites is available in multiple languages. See a NPS Ranger or the Visitor Center staff if you have a specific request.

Accessibility For the hearing impaired, a portable loop system is available inside the Visitor Center, compatible with all telecoil equipped hearing aids, cochlear implants, and induction loop receivers. A receiver with headphones is also available if a hearing aid is not compatible. Curb cuts are at corners on perimeter sidewalks. All major sites have ramps. Photo albums with pictures of 2nd floor exhibits are available. Audio description of exhibits & AV are at Poe and Kosciuszko Houses, NPS Rangers describe exhibits elsewhere. All films are open captioned, with audio description and assisted listening. To arrange for American Sign Language services, please contact us at least two weeks in advance. Use the relay service (800-654-5984-TTY) to call (215-597-7130).
