March is Women's History Month

Historic Philadelphia, Inc. and Independence National Historical Park are partnering in 2020 to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th amendment, granting women the right to vote. Events kick off in March with Women's History Month.

Betsy Ross House, 11 a.m.-3 p.m.: Meet the Women of the Betsy Ross House – Special Women's History Month program gives you the unique chance to meet three women who, like Betsy Ross, were 18th-century middle-class entrepreneurs: chocolate maker Mary Crathorne; Hannah Lithgow, who owned the House when Betsy Ross rented rooms there; and Phillis, formerly enslaved, now earning wages as a laundress. Plus, meet Betsy, herself, at three different ages. Timed tickets are $10 on site or in advance by visiting historicphiladelphia.org or calling (215) 629-4026. NOTE: Self-guided tours will not be available during the ticketed event.

Second Bank of the U.S., 3-3:30 p.m.: The Unfinished Revolution: African American Women & the Struggle for the Vote – Join a park ranger for this program highlighting influential African American women who fought for their right to vote and the adversity they faced even after the 19th Amendment was adopted. Free. (800) 537-7676, nps.gov/inde

Benjamin Franklin Museum, 1 p.m.: Philadelphia Women and the Fight for the Vote – Join two women in the year 1920 as they discuss the race to ratification and other issues that affected their everyday lives. Free. (800) 537-7676, nps.gov/inde

Second Bank of the U.S., 3-4 p.m.: Our Sons Are What We Make Them: The Anti-Suffrage Movement in the United States – Learn about the politicization of women and the differences and similarities between the Suffrage and Anti-Suffrage movements in the United States. Free. (800) 537-7676, nps.gov/inde

Second Bank of the U.S., 4 p.m.: The Unfinished Revolution: African American Women & the Struggle for the Vote – See March 1 for details.

NATIONAL CONSTITUTION CENTER

FEATURED EVENTS

FOURTEEN: A Theatrical Performance - through Friday, March 27
Experience FOURTEEN, a moving theatrical performance that sheds light on the Reconstruction era and the ratification of the 14th Amendment. Through dramatic interpretation of original texts, such as Frederick Douglass's open letter “To My Old Master,” the performance brings to life the leaders, influential figures, and everyday Americans who were central to the era. This production has been supported by The Pew Center for Arts & Heritage. Free with admission.

Women's History Month – March 1-31

In honor of the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment, the National Constitution Center will offer a wide variety of programs and events celebrating this constitutional milestone. Programs will kick off in March for Women's History Month and include the “Four Harriets” program, the “Votes for Women! The Making of an Amendment” interactive show, and a music video workshop that looks at the Women's Suffrage Movement—inspired by the music of Lady Gaga. Free with admission.

Spring Break - Wednesday, April 8 – Wednesday, April 15

Spend Spring Break at the National Constitution Center as we continue to explore extraordinary women throughout history. During the week, visitors can participate in arts and crafts activities and “meet” famous women from history at special Kids Town Hall programs. In the main exhibit, The Story of We the People, view artifacts and documents that highlight defining moments in women's history and test your knowledge in the Women's History Trivia Game! Free with admission.
