

Visiting Independence National Historical Park during a government shutdown?

We're open and here to help.

PHILADELPHIA
VISITOR CENTER

599 MARKET STREET
OPEN DAILY 9 A.M. – 6 P.M.

VISITORS CAN STILL EXPLORE AMERICA'S FOUNDING STORY WHILE THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE IS CLOSED DURING A SHUTDOWN.

Attractions in the Historic District that are open and accessible include:

- African American Museum in Philadelphia (Reopens Nov. 1)
- American Philosophical Society Museum
- Arch Street Meeting House
- Betsy Ross House
- Carpenters' Hall
- Christ Church and Christ Church Burial Ground
- Elfreth's Alley
- Franklin Square
- Independence Visitor Center
- Mother Bethel AME Church and the Richard Allen Museum
- Museum for Art in Wood
- Museum of the American Revolution
- Museum of Illusions
- National Constitution Center
- National Liberty Museum
- Polish American Cultural Center Museum
- Powel House and Hill-Physick House
- Science History Institute
- U.S. Mint
- Weitzman National Museum of American Jewish History

Attractions in the Historic District that are currently closed include:

Liberty Bell Center • Independence Hall • Benjamin Franklin Museum • Franklin Court • 18th Century Garden • Rose Garden • Magnolia Garden • Benjamin Rush Garden

KEY TIP

Explore the National Park Service exhibit at the Independence Visitor Center, where interactive displays bring America's founding history to life!